COACHES COMMENTS:

"We received a very good team effort today. Several athletes surprised us with outstanding efforts. There were few disappointing efforts if any. When we drop into the meets with smaller teams and depth, we will rise up more and more. These first two meets tested us, and told us where we may go, and we liked what we saw as a response from our kids. It was really encouraging to see the effort given today. The week saw improvement through competing with intensity today."
