Betty Kjer is Motka, the innocent, young village girl who one day shall grow up too. Solda, mother of Yolande, who has lived all her life under the stern bars of a cage of "Thou Shalt Nots," is portrayed by Marlene Nelson. The wise old grandmother, Riga, who has the wisdom of years and experience, is characterized by Mary Jean Lischke.

CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1946, twenty-one boys, and four girls walked trembling through the corridors of Allen High, as Freshmen. During the first year they survived the initiation and a party each semester.

Then in the fall of 1947 we became Sophomores. They enjoyed having a merry time, for they became the "roughest class in school." They also lost one of their girls, Fauneil Matson, leaving only three girls, and Donald Langstaff joined our group. Eight boys were chosen to serve at the Junior-Senior Banquet. They were: Leo Luhr, Harold Bock, Vernon Ellis, Jr., Gene Thomsen, Gordon Lundin, Wayne Allen, Charles Coe, and Jerry Jackson.

Then after finishing one of the toughest years in high school, they became Juniors. During the summer Barbara McAffee, decided to leave them, leaving only two girls in the class. Bob Rasmussen, Norman Thompson, and Donald Langstaff also left our group. They sold Christmas Cards the first semester to raise money so we could present the Junior-Senior Banquet the following spring. On November 31st and December 1st we presented the play "Sittin' Pretty." On the evening of April 29th the Junior-Senior Banquet was held.

Now they have become Seniors. Cherry Kingston joined the class. Gene Thomsen left our class the first semester. There are now three girls and fourteen boys in the class.

On September 13th of this year the class received their class rings.

Wayne Allen was the only one who had completed all twelve years in the Allen School.

The second semester the Senior Class enjoyed having a Class Play and Sneak Day.

But the time has come, and a few tears have been shed as they leave the school, in which the Senior Class of 1950 have received their education, and are now looking forward to their future life.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Dear Mr. Mitchell,

I just returned from a two-week tour in different parts in the U. S.

I traveled most of the time on the train. I left Pittsburgh on the Rubber-Nick-Train. I was walking thru the Pullman Car and met Myron Osbahr, who was the conductor.

I stopped, at Chicago, on Sunday morning, so I decided to go to church. The minister was none other than Leo Luhr; and the soloist of the choir was Marvin Smith.

That same afternoon I walked down town and I saw a large red building. I walked in and at the door I met the supervisor who was Harold Bock.

On Monday afternoon I went on my way. My second stop was at Omaha. I visited the Creighton University. The superintendent was none other than Oliver Likes. Mr. Likes introduced me to his secretary, who was Janice Smith. I visited all day Tuesday in Omaha. I also visited the Old Maid's Home, which was owned by Cherry Ann Kingston.

Wednesday morning I boarded the train once again. My third stop was at Denver. The first place I visited was at the Sunshine Laboratory. One of the scientists I met was Charles Coe; and one of the great fountain-pen inventors was 'Gargles,' better known as Harold Bose.

On Friday noon I arrived in Reno, Nevada; and on the edge of this large city, Lucile Luhr was a music instructor in a small school. We both enjoyed having a long, enjoyable visit.

My next stop was at Salt Lake City, Utah. I went for a walk after a long ride. I happened to see a salt mine, so I thought I would stop at a bunk-house and get some salt and take back home. I walked into the bunk-house, and to my great surprise I bumped into 'Pete,' better known as Wayne Allen. He said, he owned five salt mines. He also said, that Bernard Keil was in the Infantry.

My sixth stop was at Hollywood. I went to the RKO Studio, and the first actor on stage was 'Bluebeard.' In case you don't know who this is, it is David Frederickson. Then a swell looking person came onto the stage to do a dance. This person happened to be Gordon Lundin.

My last stop was at San Francisco, where Darrell Noe was working in a newspaper stand.
