FOREWORD

The Seniors of 1951 present this yearbook in the hope that we have honestly depicted school life. It was our intention, while compiling this book, to make it one which you would enjoy. We hope, that in this task, we have not failed.

DEDICATION

In appreciation of her helpfulness, and guidance throughout our high-school years, we dedicate this annual to Miss Rader.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Our very capable board of education formulates the policies of the school and determines its destiny. We appreciate their efforts and wish them the same success in the future that they have gained in the past.

CLASS POEM

After twelve happy, long years we have come at last
To the day when school years are years of the past;
We've set down our names and our traits in verse,
Your memories in the future 'twill then reimburse.

Jane Brandemuhl rarely is heard,
For she is as quiet as a bird;
But though she is so very quiet,
Many others really should try it.

Corky Bottger, a 'Burg boy in school,
Who is reknowned to be nobody's fool,
Says the reason; for it people taunt him,
Is in actuality, nobody seems to want him.

Small but real mighty Loren Carr
Has been an Allen Athletic star--
He talks a lot, that fact is true;
If you had his build so would you.

A preachers son; that's our Donald Cress,
Though he doesn't act it, we must confess.
He's going to work on the Highway Patrol,
So kids, keep those hot-rods under control.

Janice Davenport, next in our revue,
Always has a pleasant grin for you;
She likes to write, to sing, to read--
We are sure her goal she will exceed.

Bonnie Ellis, whose middle name is June,
Is under a spell when her Jimmy does croon;
She's happy-go-lucky, has fun all the day,
And always has something friendly to say.

He doesn't go in too much for book learnin'
And for a certain Senior girl he's yearnin';
He's lots of fun; one of the regular fellas--
Have you guessed that this lad is Jack Ellis?

Gloria Emry, a girl who's lots of fun,
Was chosen to be our queen of '50-51;
They say she likes a young sailor boy;
We think the answer she is yes--Noe?

He's seventeen and never been kissed;
Think of all the sweet lips he's missed!
Stephen Hanson prefers his books to females,
And would rather act than hit athletic trails.

Glennagale Isom, tall and sophisticated,
Once used to think that school she hated;
Then she discovered boys went there too--
Now she hopes it will never be through!

Wesley Johnston, a tall, healthy farm lad,
Lives near Waterbury with his Mom and Dad;
If you hear someone brag up a Kaiser of blue,
Then it must be Wesley who is talking to you.

A gambler from way back is our Kenny Kjer;
When he's finished, your wallet'll be bare!
He thinks he's rugged--he likes to fight;
His girl has a soul that's pure and White!

Larry Koester, president of our class,
Sure made a hit with the Isom lass!
Active in sports and each organization,
We're sure he'll succeed in any vocation.

He'll join the Navy when school is through,
And with a gal in each port, never be true;
If one gets rough, he is sure to belt her--
This masculine fellow is Leonard Linafelter.

Marilyn Linafelter, with dimples in her cheeks,
Only gaiety and everlasting friendship seeks;
When she laughs she finds it hard to desist,
But if she once stopped, it would be missed.

Mary Jean Lischke, who is musically inclined,
Has been trained by her mother to be refined:
When she's at school, she forgets her training
And is so much fun you hear no complaining!

Two stalwart men on the football line,
They both play the game clean and fine;
One is short, and the other quite tall;
Douglas and Duane Lund are known to all.

Lorraine Malcom, a kid who's cute,
For her many beaus has won repute;
When she loses one she isn't blue;
For her compensation she gets two!

Darlene Magnuson, a tall farm maid,
Of few things is known to be afraid;
The way she drives her hopped up jeep,
Scares some out of ten years sleep.

Do you see that tinge of embarrassed red?
Thru that door Eugene Magnuson has fled;
Some luscious gal has just given him a smile,
So now he'll be under cover for quite a while!

Long and gangly, with hair that's curly,
Courtland Robert's nickname is 'Burley';
He seems to enjoy anything mathematic,
And for basketball is a complete fanatic.

Miss Roberts, better known as Marcella,
Won't give a tumble to any local fella;
She said just one would fill her quota,
And he lives way up north in Minnesota.

Norman Thompson, who is a big husky western dude,
Seems to think that Maxine Voss really looks 'Gude';
His ten-gallon hat he will wear when they date;
And from Mr. Mitchell he learned not to procrastinate.

Bette Thompson never gets enraged
When teased about her being engaged;
Though some claim she is much too young,
They wish by Cupid's arrow they'd been stung!

Emil Schoenrock, who attends Allen High,
For a certain redheads' affection does vie;
Whether he'll win or not it isn't known,
But if he should lose, he'll walk alone.

See that chap reading Science Illustrated?
We think to that magazine he must be mated;
If you want information on the science line,
You'd better go up and ask Paul Wellenstein.

Last of the Seniors is Harold Wiig,
Who, though he is not so very big,
Eats huge meals seven days a week;
When he's near people, he can't speak.

Old for her height--or tall for her age,
This verse our sponsor will likely enrage!
But we're sure Miss Rader knows we're teasing;
This ends our poem--We hope it's been pleasing!!

Tampa, Florida
May 17, 1961

Dear Miss Rader:

I just landed in Tampa in my Piper Cub after a three month tour of the United States. As I crawled out of the cock-pit I saw a girl in a hostess uniform and recognized Gloria Emry. After a short visit I made a phone call and the operator's voice belonged to Marilyn Linafelter. She had never married, poor girl! She just never got over it when Duane Lund eloped with Jane Brandemuhl. The Lund's own a large hog (ranch) near Pender, Nebraska.

While I was in Chicago I attended the World's Fair, where Jack Ellis was star driver for Grandpa Jimmy Lynch's Death Dodgers. At the gate of the arena I saw a cluster of children around a once vivacious woman. It was the former Lorraine Malcom, waiting for papa Jack. She said he had been inspired by 'Cheaper by the Dozen', or was just trying to outdo his father.

While circling over Lincoln, I saw a sign which read 'Carr's Body Shop'. I assumed he could repair my car, but Loren told me he was offering other young men a build equal to his. I also talked to Douglas Lund, head coach at the University of Nebraska. Doug said Eugene Magnuson was still too shy to apply for a job and was depending on Charity for his livelihood. I bought a book in Lincoln; the author was Marcella Roberts, who is a 'Wright'-er. The book was 'The Land of Ten-Thousand Lakes' or 'If You're in Minnesota, I'll be there Too!'

In Cheyenne I went into a clothing store to buy an outfit for the rodeo. Janice Davenport, who waited on me, had recently been chosen 'Miss Atomic Bomb-Shelter' of 1961. At the rodeo I noticed a well dressed man. Courtland Roberts told me that he had made his fortune selling his very own 'Phoni Home Permanent.' Suddenly the attention of the crowd was turned to the mighty voice of Norman Thompson, who was yelling, 'Popcorn, peanuts, cracker-jacks!' At the gate, as I was leaving, the ticket taker called my name. I was surprised to see Bette Thompson. She called a cab for me and the door was opened by Emil Schoenrock. His friend, Jewell Bottger is bell-boy at the Green Light Hotel, where everyone goes. I also learned that Paul Wellenstein owns a tobacco plantation in Tennessee. His product is not for sale, however. He consumes it all himself.

During my visit to Reno I chanced upon the 'Gay Divorcee' Casino'. Kenneth Kjer, the proprietor, had won it in a card game. For a body-guard he hires his cigarette girl's (Bonnie Ellis's) husband, Donald Cress. In Reno circles he is known as 'Lugar' Cress.

Next I went to Frisco, where I bumped into my sister-in-law. As I was rushing Glennagale Isom to the hospital, she told me about Harold being in the Wiig business. I guess his best customer is Mr. Mitchell. Gale had me phone a substitute to teach in her place at the dancing school while she recuperated.

By the bye, I found a letter in my box this morning from the Hansons. Mary Jean and Stephen are missionaries in darkest Africa. They went there to evade income tax collectors who were trying to collect the back taxes on their yo-yo factory. I was surprised to hear that when the factory was sold for taxes, Wes Johnston, the famous female impersonator, so popular in night club circuits, bought it. He is getting married next month. The bride will be the equally popular lady wrestler, Darlene Magnuson. I wonder who will wear the pants in that family? I'd better close for the twins are crying and Glory Ann is busy baking a cake for our little Sally's birthday. Please write and let me know the news when you hear from any of the class of '51.

As ever,

Larry Koester

P.S. Leonard Linafelter dyed last week...he dyed one of my old white shirts green. He is now in the cleaning business.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Class of '51, being sound of mind and memory, do hereby declare this to be our Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any wills heretofore made by us.

To the Juniors,--we bequeath our caps and gowns, hoping they'll cut as stunning a figure in them as we did.

To the Sophomores,--we bequeath the duty of bringing honors to these sacred halls equal to the ones we brought.

To the Freshmen,--we bequeath our quiet dignity and charming manner which won the hearts of the entire faculty.

The following Seniors bequeath their individual possessions as follows:

Jane Brandemuhl, her boisterous manner to Marlene Mitchell.
Jewell Bottger, his squeaky voice to Richard Mitchell.
Loren Carr, his shoulders to Conrad Dean.
Donald Cress, his ability to get dates to Wilmer Malcom.
Janice Davenport, her ability to snap gum to Mr. Knight.
Bonnie Ellis, her ready smile to Helen White.
Jack Ellis, his brown eyes to the females of Allen High.
Gloria Emry, her pair of Genes to any girl whom they will fit.
Stephen Hanson, his ability to get alone with the opposite sex to Gary Carr.
Glennagale Isom, her nickname to anyone who thinks they can wiggle into it.
Wesley Johnston, his wavy hair to Archie Nyen.
Kenneth Kjer, his position in drawer 'K' of the police files to Bill Keil.
Larry Koester, Gloryann to the three Freshmen who have been after her all year.
Leonard Linafelter, his intimacy with the grade school teachers to Burt Hubbard.
Mary Jean Lischke, her '30' Carr to anyone who can drive it the way she did.
Douglas Lund, his dainty ways to Vivian Hansen.
Duane Lund, since he cannot get dates, himself to a beautiful blonde.
Darlene Magnuson, her healthy body to Keith Schram.
Eugene Magnuson, his ability to type to Mr. Owens.
Lorraine Malcom, a little 'Jack' to whoever has a big 'Bill.'
Courtland Roberts, his romantic bass to Norman Nobbe.
Marcella Roberts, her luxurious hair to Lassie.
Emil Schoenrock, his wit, (and that's only the half of it) to Mr. Lorenz.
Bette Thompson, her job in the office to anyone who wants to get rich quick.
Norman Thompson, his love notes to Maxine, for he has been too shy to give them to her.
Paul Wellenstein, his loud laughter to Miss Moffet.
Harold Wiig, the gum under his desk to whoever occupies it next.
Arlone Margaret Rader, the Seniors to the colleges of America, and to those colleges we dedicate this song: 'So Long, It's Been Good to Know You.'

We hereby appoint Mary Wheeler as the executor of this will.

REMEMBER--

When Jack, Pudgy, Kenny, and Gunner celebrated New Years Eve so thoroughly?

When we learned about the great school house robbery of '51?

When Deenette had a New Years Eve Party?

When the Pep Club couldn't agree on their jersey blouses?

When K. R. went 'dear' hunting?

When the table broke at the State Little Theater Contest in Lincoln?

When we had to make up school on Saturdays?

When Jim Noe got the apple shot off his head?

When the Juniors burned the stage curtains?

When Gloria walked through Sophomore English?

When the Student Council worked so hard on clean-up day?

When the Seniors visited Omaha on Sneak Day?

When Mrs. Mitchell served the unsuspecting faculty deer meat?

When Mr. Ganzel wasn't showing off his two girls?

When Swami Hutchings told your fortune at the 'A' Club Carnival?

When Don apologized to 'Chick' in front of the assembly?

When Corky hid the alarm clock in Shorthand?

When Lorraine and Jack skipped and got kicked out of class?

When Mr. Knight's nose swelled up?

When the English Review class had that fateful spelldown with the 7th and 8th grade?

When Mr. Lorenz smiled? I don't.

When Mr. and Mrs. Owens weren't looking for each other?

When the Junior and Senior Banquet gave so many problems to the P. T. A.

When Mr. Mitchell wasn't Superintendent? If you do, then you're much older than I.

When Miss Rader tamed down the Senior Class Play?

When the Seniors broke all the old traditions?

Music, dramatics, sports, and studies,
The happy times you had with your buddies;
These are the things that we did then,
Think back kids....Remember when?

JUNIOR CLASS

Third Row--Lanser, Jones, Hansen, Bose, Hutchings, Schoenrock, Kolbaum, Noe, Mattes, Schroeder.
Second Row--Ellis, Chase, Buxton, Nyen, Curry, Durant, Hubbard, Nobbe, Novak, Ganzel.
First Row--Hansen, White, Ullrich, Magnuson, Nelson, Koester, Nobbe,
Good, Carlson.

The Junior Class was organized September 7, with the officers elected as follows:

President	-----	Roger Hutchings
Vice President	-----	Orville Buxton
Secretary	-----	Janet Koester
Treasurer	-----	Deenette Good
News Reporter	-----	Marlene Nelson
Sponser	-----	Mr. Ganzel

A total of 29 members are in our class this year.
We presented our class play, 'January Thaw,' November 16th and 17th and we also were hosts at the Junior-Senior Banquet. They both proved to be a great success.

Although we have enjoyed our 'Junior' year very much, we are all looking forward to next year, when we can all very proudly say, 'I am a Senior!'

SOPHOMORE CLASS

Third Row--Dean, Dietz, Mitchell, O'Brien, Rasmussen, Smith, Carr, Wiig.
 Second Row--Mr. Lorenz, Swift, Mattes, Onderstal, Ellis, Gotch, Isom, Benstead, Isom, Kjer.
 First Row--Carlson, Benton, Likes, Carr, Voss, Dean, Steele.

The Sophomore class organized September 13, 1950, with the following officers elected:

- | | | |
|----------------|-----------|-----------------|
| President | - - - - - | - Carol Benton |
| Vice President | - - - - - | - Gloryann Isom |
| Secretary | - - - - - | - Joanne Dean |
| Treasurer | - - - - - | - Zoe Ann Swift |
| News Reporter | - - - - - | - Betty Kjer |
| Sponsor | - - - - - | - Mr. Lorenz |

Shortly after the fall term began Tommy O'Brien left the school, leaving the class with 23 members.

On the evening of October 20, the class had a party at the Deo Isom farm. The members invited their friends to make the evening more enjoyable.

The Sophomores have actively participated in music, in declam, and in sports.

FRESHMAN CLASS

Third Row--Schram, Roberts, Jones, Schroeder, Larson, Ellis, Durant, Bose, Good, Mitchell, O'Brien, Hanson, Hanson.
 Second Row--Ellis, Ellis, Wheeler, Smith, Roberts, Benstead, Hanson, Bock, Reising, Dean, Malcom, Mr. Knight.
 First Row--Blohm, Koester, Janssen, Mitchell, Kingston, Hanson, Hansen, Malcom, Linafelter.

The first meeting of the Freshman class was held September 7, 1950 at which the following officers were chosen:

- | | |
|----------------|-----------------------------|
| President | - - - - - Alice Janssen |
| Vice President | - - - - - Bill Mitchell |
| Secretary | - - - - - Carol Ann Koester |
| Treasurer | - - - - - Patty Wheeler |
| News Reporter | - - - - - -Bob Good |
| Sponsor | - - - - - -Mr. Knight |

During the first semester, one of our classmates, Marvin O'Brien, left the school, leaving the class with 32 members.

On the evening of September 29, the class sponsored a square dance in the Legion Hall.

A one-act play, 'Jiminy Christmas,' was presented December 22, before the assembly.

JUNIOR HIGH

Third Row--Rasmussen, Kjer, Dietz, Hutchings, Hubbard, MacAfee, Isom, Benton, Pederson, Stark, Hutchings, Koester, Rasmussen.
Second Row--Good, Ellis, Carr, Thompson, Trube, Ellis, Onderstal, Jordon, Nyen, White, Mrs. Owens.
First Row--Lundin, Isom, Roberts, Schnieder, Oviatt, Janssen, Koester, Roberts, Jordon.

On the first day of school, thirty-three pupils entered the seventh and eighth grade room. During the year the enrollment increased to thirty-five. Each day of the year has been filled with much learning, many activities, and good times.

We were very honored that the Student Council saw fit to award us first prize in the Christmas decoration contest.

We have reasons for being proud of our Junior High Basketball team who maintained a fine record. The team played in two tournaments. They won the championship in the Dixon County Tournament. They also played at the Wayne Invitational Tournament. The fellows who made up the first team were Sam Isom, Jack Dietz, Larry MacAfee, Fred Kjer, and Bruce Hutchings. The five cheerleaders who so faithfully cheered them on are Marcia Koester, Gwynn Trube, Deanna Schneider, Verlyn Isom and Donna Lundin.

WILDCATS

HOMECOMING

Homecoming of 1950-51 was held Friday the 13th of October in the high school auditorium. Don Cress, toastmaster, presented Marilyn Linafelter, who welcomed the alumni. Her brother, Kenneth, gave the response.

Next came the high spot of the afternoon...the coronation of the Royalty. Mary Jean Lischke played the processional as the Pages, Donita Engel and Wally Isom, opened the door to allow Glennagale Isom and Eugene Magnuson, the second attendants, to make their entrance. They were closely followed by Lorraine Malcom and Douglas Lund, the first attendants. Then the big moment came as the King and Queen made their appearance. Their majesties Gloria Emry and Larry Koester were crowned by Lucille Luhr, Queen of 1949-50. The crowns were carried on pillows by Linda Holmes and Dean Chase.

The Royal couples command performance included alumni speeches, vocal duets by Dorothy Engel and Herbert Ellis and by Marlene Nelson and Janet Koester. Miss Lischke played a piano solo and the recession-al as the King, Queen, and attendants left their places of honor. The program was closed with a skit and pep rally by the cheerleaders.

A football game between the Eagles and Homer which resulted in a 33-0 victory for Allen, closed the days festivities.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Second Row--Carlson, Miss Rader, Koester, Lund, Buxton, Hutchings, Good, Lischke.
 First Row--Emry, Lund, Wheeler, Janssen, Dean, Benton, Koester.

The Student Council was organized September 19, 1951, for the purpose of serving as a general adviser group to the Superintendent and Principal and to encourage and develop good sportsmanship and leadership in school affairs.

Officers elected were:

President	-----	-----	Larry Koester
Vice President	-----	-----	Douglas Lund
Secretary	-----	-----	Gloria Emry
Treasurer	-----	-----	Roger Hutchings
News Reporter	-----	-----	Mary Jean Lischke
Sponsor	-----	-----	Miss Rader

The members of this group were the presidents of the different organizations in high school. Because there were only seven original members, seven more were elected into the group.

Some of the projects for the year were; selling candy at noon, polishing the trophies, supervising the grade school recreation, organizing a lost and found department, cleaning up the school lawn, sponsoring a Christmas party, and also sponsoring a 'horn of plenty' drive to benefit the needy people living in or near Allen.

The Student Council outfits were maroon V-neck sweaters.

The members of the council would like to thank Miss Rader for her help in organizing this worthy organization and for all the work she has put forth endeavoring to make it a success.

DRAMATICS

The dramatics season had its grand opening with the County One-act Play Contest in Wakefield. Three schools participated in the event with Allen coming out on top and bringing back the trophy. Mary Jean Lischke and Stephen Hanson won the best actress and best actor awards, respectively. The cast of the play was:

Nora Andrews - - - - -	-Mary Jean Lischke
John Andrews - - - - -	-Roger Schroeder
Edward - - - - -	- Stephen Hanson
Robert Norton - - - - -	-Roger Hutchings
Elaine Madison - - - - -	- Betty Kjer

The play, a drama, tells the story of a revengeful mother, trying to kill the man who killed her son, Edward, who returns as a ghost.

'Special Guest' also won superior at Wayne and Roger Schroeder and Mary Jean Lischke won outstanding acting awards.

At Lincoln, it rated excellent and Stephen Hanson won one of the outstanding acting awards.

Those participating in declam and winning first in their various divisions at the local contest were: Humorous-Marlene Nelson, Dramatic-Betty Kjer, Poetry Interpretation-Mary Jean Lischke, Radio News-casting-Archie Nyen, Original Oratory-Roger Hutchings, Interpretive Oratory-Stephen Hanson, and Extemporaneous-Janet Koester.

In the County Contest the contestants from Allen placed first in Poetry Interpretation and in Interpretive Oratory, and second in all other fields, thereby winning the trophy.

This outcome was repeated in the District Contest with Deenette Good replacing the original Extemporaneous contestant. Gloria Emry received good in Discussion.

At the Fine Arts Festival in Lincoln, Mary Jean Lischke received superior and Stephen Hanson received excellent in their respective divisions.

Other activities in the Dramatic field this year included the Junior class play, 'January Thaw,' at which a capable cast gave an admirable performance.

The Freshmen presented their annual Christmas play for the assembly.

After two weeks rehearsal the Seniors presented 'You Can't Take it With You,' a Broadway production. This play, presented May 3 and 4, concluded the Dramatic Season.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

Director: Mr. Owens - Pianist: Marlene Nelson

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

Director: Mr. Owens - Pianist: Roger Hutchings

MIXED CHORUS

Director: Mr. Owens - Pianist: Marlene Nelson

MIXED CHORUS: At the district, county, and local contests this group sang two selections: 'I've Got Plenty of Nothin' and 'A Tribute to Song.' This mixed group was selected from the high school by Mr. Owens, the music instructor.

GIRLS GLEE CLUB: 'May Day Carol' and 'I Heard a Forest Praying' were the songs chosen and sang by the Girls Glee Club at the contests this year.

BOYS GLEE CLUB: At the time the picture of Boy's Glee was taken, the group was working on two songs; 'Prayer' and 'Sing me a Chantey with a Yo-Heave-Ho.' These were the ones decided upon to sing at the Festival and contests this year.

TRIPLE TRIO: This group consisted of D. Magnuson, C. Carlson, A. Magnuson, G. Isom, G. A. Isom, G. Emry, C. A. Koester, M. Nelson and J. Koester.

SEXTET: M. Nelson, J. Koester, G. Emry, G. A. Isom, G. Isom, and C. A. Koester were the girls who composed the sextet this year.

BOYS QUARTET: This group, who sang the Negro spiritual 'Who's Dat A'Callin' Me,' consisted of Courtland Roberts, Eugene Magnuson, Arlen Ellis, and Archie Nyen. The boys also used 'Rollin' Down to Jordan,' as a contest number.

GIRLS TRIO: Marlene Nelson, Janet Koester, and Glennagale Isom composed this trio which sang 'Snow Adventure' at the various contests.

The Allen chapter of Future Farmers of America held their first meeting on Monday, September 10, 1950 with the following officers elected:

President	- - - - -	Douglas Lund
Vice President	- - - - -	Gilbert Mattes
Secretary	- - - - -	Larry Koester
Treasurer	- - - - -	Orville Buxton
Reporter	- - - - -	Eugene Magnuson
Sentinel	- - - - -	Leonard Linafelter
Sponsor	- - - - -	Mr. Ganzel

The F.F.A. started the year by going to the Iowa State fair for two days. Another education tour was taken in the spring.

The F.F.A. sponsored a scrap drive as a project for making money which proved to be very profitable.

They also bought a gilt which was given to Bobby Good to start him on the right road to raising good quality hogs.

They also held a Valentine Day party with the F.H.A. February 14, at which Gloryann Isom and Duane Lund were crowned Queen and King of Hearts.

FOOTBALL

The Allen Eagles won seven out of nine games under the leadership of Coach Knight.

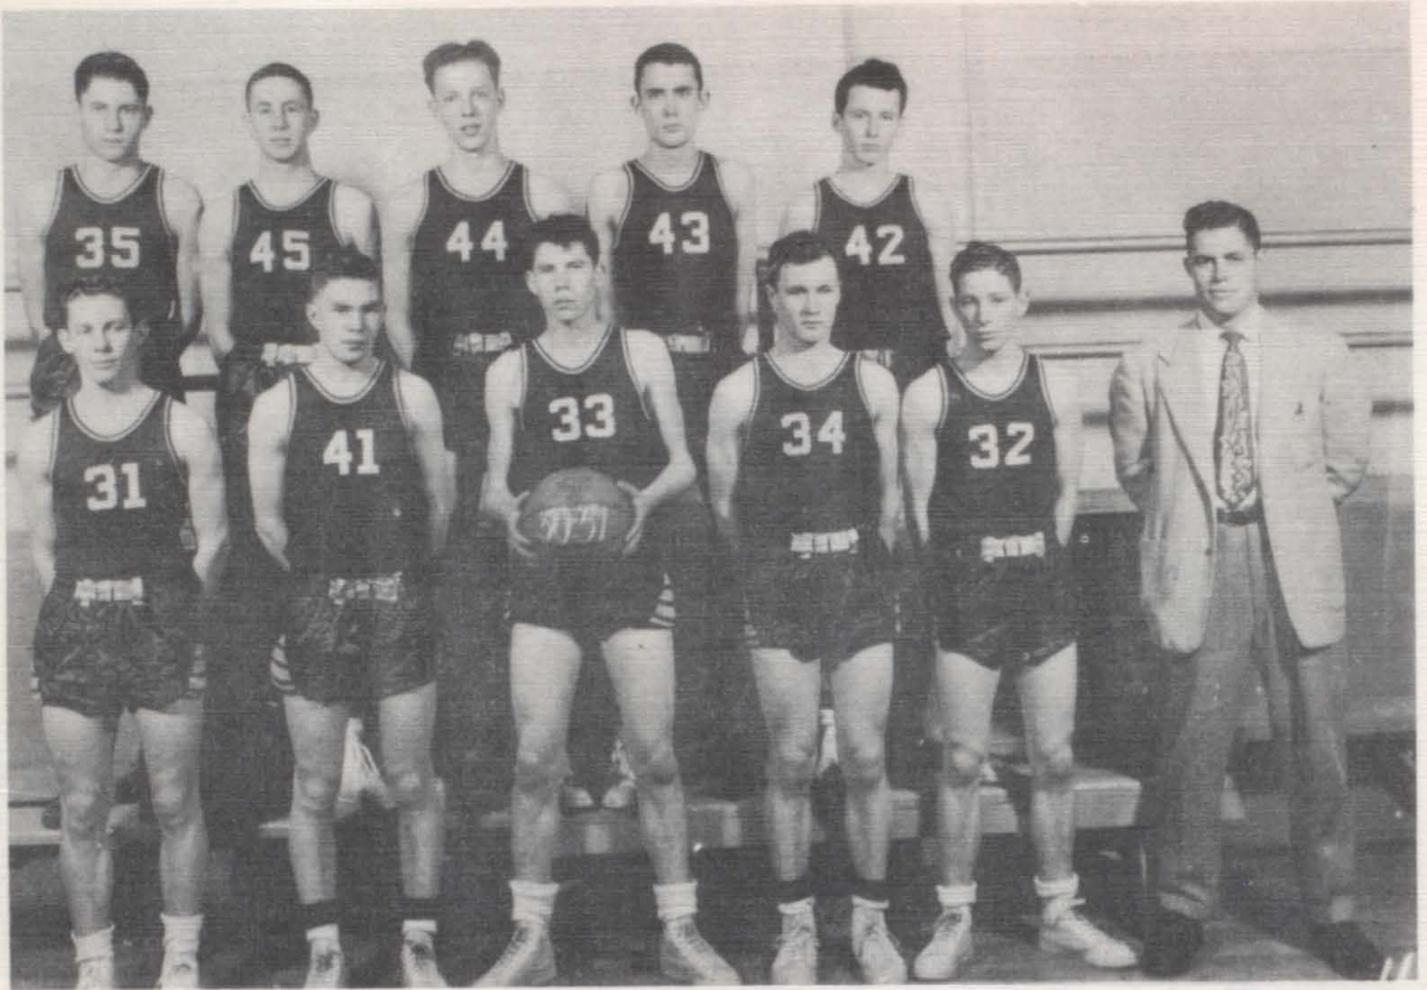

The biggest game of the season, the Wakefield game, was played on our new home field. WJAG, Norfolk, broadcast the play by play description of this exciting game.

Allen won the Dixon County Championship trophy for this very successful season.

BASKETBALL

Second Row--Schoenrock, Hutchings, Roberts, Kollbaum, Koester.
 First Row--Ellis, Karlberg, Durrant, Buxton, Chase, Coach Knight.

After a weeks practice the Eagles started their basketball season at Wayne. Through the season the team won three games and lost thirteen.

At the District Tournament at Wakefield the boys reacted to the enthusiasm of their fans and came home with the third place trophy. This put a happy ending to a rather unsuccessful season.
