Seniors

Seniors talk things over with the Coach.

The Eagles started the 1967 season out by chalking up three wins in as many games. However, a hard-fought loss to Wakefield and the loss of key player, Mike Prescott, downed Allen's spirits. Although we were unable to enter the win column during the last five games, much experience was gained by the underclassmen that should certainly show up during the next two or three years.

Coach

The Allen Varsity started a rebuilding year with only four returning lettermen including Jim Ellis, Mike Roeber, David Abts, John Abts. Underclassmen are expected to play a large role in future years. The Allen Varsity opened the season with a heartbreaking loss to the school rival, Ponca. The outcome was mainly due to a loss of three starters to fouls. The highpoint of the season was a three-point loss to Wakefield and a win over Emerson Sacred Heart, both games being decided in the last seconds. The season was ended with a hard-fought game against Emerson-Hubbard in the district tournament.

Eager Eyed Eaglettes.

Biff, Bam, Powie!!!

This was the first year that organized volleyball has been offered in Allen, and the high school girls participated enthusiastically in this challenging sport. Over thirty girls turned out for practices even though most of them were held before and after school. The girls showed a great deal of determination and beat Emerson and Hartington C. C. They plan to wind up the activities with a non-conference game with Pender and an intramural tournament with all high school players participating. The sportsmanship showed by these girls should be admired by everyone in the student body, and they should be congratulated on their effort.

We started with 20 Kindergartners; Ronald Paulsen and Marlene Spike moved away. There are now 5 girls and 13 boys. Our room mother is Mrs. Noelyn Isom. We have been very excited about the following days:

Halloween: We dressed like someone else.

Thanksgiving: We were thankful for so many things.

Christmas: Santa Claus came to visit our room.

Valentine's Day: We enjoyed exchanging valentines with our classmates.

Easter: We found so many colored eggs.

May Day: We exchanged colorful May baskets.

Last Day of School: We journeyed to the Allen Park for excitement and lunch.

FIRST GRADE

BACK ROW: Duane Stolle, Pamela Brownell, Gary Karlberg, Kevin French, Ronda Wennekamp, Jimmy Lunz, Emily Ellis, Mrs. Jewell. SECOND ROW: Susan Erwin, Elaine Wennekamp, Kevin Kraemer, Bart Gotch, Alan Isom, Nicky Mitchell, Darwin Kluver, Michael Wilch. FRONT ROW: Becky Jacobs, Gregory Carr, Dale Kellogg, Tracy Lund, Stacey Koester, Kieth Brentlinger, Lynette Sawtell.

Becky Jacobs served as flower girl, and Mike Wilch served as crown bearer for the High School Homecoming in September. "The Turkey's Thanksgiving" and "The Thankful Pilgrims," two plays in costume, were presented to the Kindergarten and mothers at Thanksgiving. A huge Santa Claus stuck in a chimney was constructed for the lower hall at Christmas. Elaine and Ronda Wennekamp moved to Waterbury at midterm. The room mother, Mrs. Marvin Stolle, provided for two parties, one at Halloween and one at Valentine's Day. A Doll and Toy Day was held January 19 with Kindergarten and mothers as guests. A parade and tea was given for the mothers in May. We joined the other elementary grades in a parade at Halloween and at a picnic in the Allen park at the close of the year.

SECOND GRADE

We began the year with 27 active youngsters. Of these we still have 25, for Sheryl Paulsen and Patty Jo Weber have moved to other towns.

The highlights of the year for this class were probably successful Halloween and Valentine parties given by a capable room mother, Mrs. Randy Ellis. In the early part of February we entertained our mothers with a short program of songs and recitations.

School began August 28 with twenty youngsters. We approached that first day somewhat courageously, wide-eyed, and wondering a bit about a new teacher, a new room, and new work to be mastered. Paul Peck was a new pupil. A few weeks after school started, we lost Mary and Michael Weber, leaving us with eighteen in our third grade.

Some of the highlights of this year were the Halloween and Valentine parties which were planned by our PTA Room Mother, Mrs. Vandel Rahn.

Karen Spike and Brenda Wennekamp have moved during the school year.

The headlighthts of the year are, of course, the parties. At Halloween and Valentine's Day our room mother, Mrs. Jacobs, planned parties for us that were enjoyed by all. At Christmas the exchange of gifts was both interesting and exciting

The sixth grade of 1967-68 began the school year August 28 with 12 boys and 15 girls. We gained 2 new classmates.

Several activities stand out in our minds when we look back over the year.

First of all, our class bought a new flag for our room to replace the old, faded flag we had.

Our own newspaper, "The Young Generation", provided us with a good opportunity for learning and fun!

To practice parliamentary procedures, we formed the Junior Eagles Science Club. We elected several presidents, vice-presidents, secretaries, and a treasurer.

Out of our physical education classes came the fifth and sixth grade basketball team. We played several other schools, with much pep from our own pep club and cheerleaders.

Of course, we'll always remember our parties and thank Mrs. Gotch, our room mother, for all her preparations.

SEVENTH GRADE

We began our year with a lot of determination, and so we finished it. The highlights of the year included our election of class officers. They were Jack Hank, President; Pete Snyder, Vice-President; Janell Hassler, Secretary-Treasurer. We also elected two girls to represent the seventh grade as cheerleaders; they were Deb Ellis and Julie Tighe. Our classroom reporter was Susie Kjer.

The F. H. A. hosted our Christmas party, and at the party Wayne Rastede managed to blow the largest bubble with "Bub's Daddy" gum.

Posters, bulletin boards, themes, motors, decorations, and experiments were completed by all members of the class.

Our athletes enjoyed a fine year, with the exceptions of Mark Jorgensen who broke his foot and Dick Burgess who took care of the student manager task.

We also wrote and received pen-pal letters to and from all parts of the world.
