Dedication

We, the seniors of 1970, dedicate this year's edition of the EAGLE to Craig Kjer, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kjer, whom God called Home through a tragic accident. Because of his outstanding personality, Craig still lives in our hearts. Those who knew him loved him.

The Junior Class was sponsored by Mr. Isom. As a money-making project they sold magazines. "Hillbilly Courtship," the class play held November 21 and 22, was a great success, boasting income for the Junior-Senior Prom. The theme for the Prom, held on May 9, was "The Impossible Dream."

The Freshmen started their first year of high school with the election of officers. The new members of F.H.A. and F.F.A. from our class experienced Initiation Day during the first semester. For the snake dance the girls made a Ponca Indian dummy and the boys made torches. As our first semester activity, we sponsored a dance December 19, after winning over Newcastle; it proved profitable.

Junior Class Play

November 21 and 22 were two fun-filled days for the juniors of Allen High. On these two dates they presented a hilarious version of a good old-fashioned shotgun wedding. Wash Jeddo plays matchmaker, but only succeeds in annoying an already "fiery" feud. As the play progresses, Ma Peppin's cabin becomes the site of wild romancing, mixed with violent gunshots. Bridget and Louis make their appearance to add to the confusion. The final act wraps up all loose ends, as Emmy brings order out of chaos.

"Hillbilly Courtship"

... Rhonda outwits Chuck.

... Jerome declares his love for Sandy.

... Linda holds a gun on Gary and Chuck, as Sandy and Ginger stand by.

Senior Class Play

Mary Wilson found herself in a predicament which led to all sorts of comical events—each funnier than the one before. It all began when her Aunt Gertrude persuaded Wilbert to take Mary to the club dance. Nosey Gertrude runs the life of poor Mr. Wilson like a typical overbearing old maid. His dramatic career is nearly cut short when his wife finds him in the clutches of the local siren. Tommy Wilson and his friend Ted come to Mary's rescue but only succeed in causing more trouble.

This year, for the first time in many years, German was in Allen's curriculum under the leadership of Mr. George Saunders. There were fourteen students enrolled in German, taking this course to learn a new language, just as an explorer searches for new lands. While mastering the German language was time consuming, it was also very rewarding.

The 1969-70 F.H.A. activities included the annual Polio Benefit basketball game, a visit to the Ponca Nursing Home, and a Lemon Dance. We also enjoyed speeches from Mrs. Schluckebier, a State Patrolman representative, and Mr. Neal Boeshart, an expert on alcoholism. Many attended the KMNS Cooking School and participated in F.H.A. week. All of the 1970-71 officers attended State Workshop in Lincoln on April 3 and 4.

The Royalty

On September 26, 1969 Homecoming was observed for the school year 1969-70. Ceremonies were held in the afternoon in the gymnasium for the public; and after the game that evening, a formal dance for the students and alumni was held. Music was furnished by Larry Schlins and his band. Ponca, the Homecoming game rival, got around the previously successful Eagles with a 16-6 victory.

Royalty Escorts

Gale Hamilton, Linda Book, Brian Linafelter, Rhonda Schultz, Mike Isom, and Sandy Jeffrey were the juniors chosen by the senior class to act as escorts for the Royalty.

The members of the Royalty were escorted to the platform by the Juniors pictured above. Later in the evening, Allen's Royalty of 1969-70 was again honored by a ride around the field during half time at the football game and by a special dance, the Homecoming Ball. We would like to thank the alumni for making Homecoming a beautiful occasion again this year and also those who came to the ceremonies to observe this annual festivity.

1970 Sweetheart Ball

"A Time for Us"

"A Time For Us" set the stage for Allen High's Annual F.F.A.-F.H.A. Sweetheart Ball.

Queen Susan Smith and King Dale Strivens were crowned by 1969's Royalty—Linda Rasmussen and Randy Crombie. Behind their thrones hung cupids of red and white. Streamers of Sweetheart colors encircled the dance area. To the left of the thrones were "The Fates," providing music for the evening. Two red hearts declaring "Love Me Forever" enhanced the punch table.

After the coronation the girls' sextet, accompanied by D'vee Koester, sang "Moments to Remember."

The highlight of the evening, the royalty dance, closed the ceremonies.

The Allen Eagles of 1969 were a team that "came back." At mid-season their record was 3 wins and 3 losses and, had the team not generated itself into a positive-thinking, workable unit, the season could have been disastrous. The Eagles wound up winning the last three games and finishing in second place in the tough Lewis and Clark Conference. The Eagles of 1969 featured a powerful ground attack and a "stingy" defense, outscoring their opponents 157 to 86. The team will graduate eleven boys who will be hard to replace on offense and defense. The outlook for 1970 is good, however, with lettermen returning at nearly every position.

Bob Mitchell shoots as John Abts, Loren Reuter, and Denny Geiger head for possible rebound.

Coach Jordan and Coach Kruse discuss the strategy they used this season.

Advice is given to Eagles as they compete with Winside.

Our won-loss record was dimmed in part this year by the adoption of a new style of play. Fast breaking, the quick screen and shot, and hitting the open man quickly became more prevalent than the ball-control style of play that had been used in the past. This should be helpful to the underclassmen in future years. One of the most exciting games was the Wakefield contest. Allen held a fourteen point lead midway in the fourth quarter only to see it dwindle to a 50-49 overtime defeat. The highlight of the season was the Wynot game, when Allen stomped them 78-35. The improvement of the team is shown by cutting total turnovers from over thirty in the first few ball games to under ten later in the season. Loren Reuter led the club in scoring, with 228 points in all, followed by Bob Mitchell and Denny Geiger. Denny led in rebounds, followed by Mitchell and Jerome Roberts. John Abts led in assists and interceptions.

The Allen "B" Team of 1969-70 was composed of eighteen boys who never heard of the word quit. Losing their first eleven games, they came alive to finish the season with two wins. A 2-11 season is far from successful in the eyes of the fans and students. We should realize, however, that these are the future "Eagles of Allen High." If they retain their desire and the ability to learn from their mistakes, they will make the nucleus of a fine team in years to come. Never looking back and full of enthusiasm for the next opponent were their guidelines. It is hoped they can carry over this attitude and not forget the fundamentals of basketball learned this year.

Coach Kruse gives "pointers" to Terry Noe, Eugene French, Lynn Carlson, Glenn Trube, Kent Sachau, Bill Hall, Jim Prescott.

Volleyball

Cathy Dowling and Sue Smith vie for the ball as the two teams compete.

With only two letter winners returning and Allen High in only its third season of the sport, the prospects were not very bright for the '69-'70 season. From a won-and-lost standpoint, the team was not completely a success. The two letter winners worked hard with the newcomers and formed a real competitive team. At times starting two seniors and a combination of either four freshmen, or three freshmen and one junior, the Eagle Jets had some hard times. The team—molded around the power of two great spikers—learned the fundamentals of the game and will be a good representative team in years to come. Playing a total of 18 games, the girls picked up a lot of valuable competitive experience. The hope that this sport may catch on in fan appreciation is being realized. The girls who return next year should form a fine team, one that everyone will want to back.

Student Council

Students, Parents, Faculty, and Patrons:

In January of this year students in each of the high school classes selected by ballot two students from their class to be student council representatives. These students have only delegated authority and no direct-stated responsibility. Members serve unselfishly and deserve the cooperation of all of us.

A short time ago several students requested the opportunity to use the former lunchroom when it was not needed as a class room. They felt that this could be an opportunity to be free of the pressures found in classrooms and study hall. The advisors, Mr. Jordan and Mr. Peterson, worked with the student council on details for the venture. The plan was presented and studied by the administrators and the school board.

The purpose of the venture was to give students who had indicated they were quite self-directive an opportunity to be free of constant pressure. It is to be an incentive for improved personal performance.

This type of project is common in most large schools today. We hope it works for us. It can be a worthwhile project to promote improved performance and develop a greater sense of responsibility. The project is a challenge which I hope all of us will meet successfully.

Respectfully,
Mr. Peterson, Principal

Foreign Exchange Students

Ricardo Gardenal and Maridia Fernandes.

Students, Parents, Faculty and Patrons:

It is appropriate that I should comment about our two guests, Maridia Fernandes and Ricardo Gardenal, who have been with us since shortly before Christmas.

Last September International Fellowship, Inc., of Buffalo, New York, wrote me a letter to inquire if we would be willing to host a South American student for a three-month period. This letter was followed by a few phone calls to us to inquire further. I was to be the local coordinator. I asked students their opinion and also questioned several adults regarding the possibility of a foreign exchange student visiting Allen. Nearly everyone responded positively, so I felt safe to proceed carefully to seek suitable hosts for one.

Two suitable families responded, and I felt both were well qualified, so I reported this. International Fellowship agreed to send two, and the host families were contacted by them. From that point the Host families, International Fellowship, and the students carried on. The cost of the program was shared. The students paid the $600 plus (cost of transportation and insurance). The host families had to agree to furnish food, housing, transportation for school and worship plus clothes washing. In return, the host family was to act as parents and expect students to work as their own children and be able to deduct $50 per month for income tax purposes.

The students have shown a great interest in the people and activities of the community and expressed satisfaction in the way people have received them.

Schools south of the equator have been having summer vacation during this time so Maridia and Ricardo have not missed school. Classes resume for them in March, so they will both go back to finish high school next term. Both students plan to become doctors.

Both students went on a tour to Washington, D. C. and New York the week of February 22-28. Paula Reuter, host sister of Maridia, also went on the tour. After the tour Maridia returned to her home at Sao Paulo, Brazil. Paula Reuter and Ricardo returned, and Ricardo left Allen for his home at Canada De Gomez, Argentina, the following week.

Respectfully,
Mr. Peterson, Principal

The eighth grade of 1969-1970 was composed of twenty-six energetic individuals. Our room mother was Mrs. Ed Fahrenholz.

Since these students were enrolled in five classes and since many participated in band, they were busy. Among the highlights of the extra-curricular activities were the following: an eighth grade Charlie Brown party honoring the seventh grade; basketball, football, volleyball games and tournaments; band clinic at Emerson; Dixon County Spelling Contest; and a seventh grade party for the eighth grade.

Seventh Grade

The new experience of Junior High opened to 23 seventh graders. We had 11 girls and 12 boys.

One of our first tasks was to elect officers. The officers were President: Paul Snyder, Vice President: Lesa Carpenter, Secretary: Jeanette Burgess, Treasurer: Peter Lundin, Reporter: Trudy Mattes.

We also elected two cheerleaders from the seventh grade. They were Colleen Blohm and Trudy Mattes. We were fortunate to have the alternate who was Lesa Carpenter from the seventh grade.

One very bright spot in our year was when we were the guests of the eighth grade for our first semester party. We hosted them at an equally fine party in the spring.

A new experience for both our boys and girls was competitive sports. The boys partici- pated in basketball and the girls in volleyball.

Another highlight of our year was pen pals from the Eastern Hemisphere.
