The 1975-76 ANNUAL gives tribute to the Bicentennial Committee for their part in sponsoring the activities which have entitled Allen, Nebraska, to become a Bicentennial Community in this, our nation's 200th birthday.

The Bicentennial Committee, in preparation for Allen's summer events, held fund-raising activities during the winter months of 1976. This Committee, through careful planning, has organized many events which entitled Allen to become a Bicentennial Community. The official flag ceremony was held February 29, 1976. This was the beginning of a busy celebration period. The Bicentennial Queen Pageant was held in April with Cheryl Koch receiving the title out of a total of twelve entries. The principal May occurrence was the potluck picnic supper and the Two-Act Pageant depicting the history of Allen. The week preceding July 4 was filled with community happenings, among them: alumni reunion, sing-along, style review, senior citizen king and queen selection, prince and princess selection, variety ball game, box social, community choir, bike rodeo, ice cream social, pancake breakfast, antique displays, children's parade, beard contest, square dance performance, street dance, community church service, family picnic, bell-ringing ceremony, parade, games, contests, Chautaugua, and fireworks. The school and community appreciates the fun and fellowship provided by the Bicentennial Committee.

The senior class play, "They Run in Our Family" (BELOW) dealt with the problems that developed when a losing but optimistic coach father, a frustrated-at-sports mother, and their over-zealous children clash because of athletics. The Pennywinners solve the dilemma and learn that a losing team can win and Dad is really a good coach, "by George!"

A new organization for junior high and high school was the student council (ABOVE), sponsored by D. Kennedy and B. O'Callaghan. Activities this year included the State Student Council Convention at York, picking up corn, and other fund-raising activities. Mr. Bruce O'Callaghan and Mrs. Darlene Roberts (ABOVE) served as guidance counselor-career education director and career education assistant-special education director, respectively. Mrs. Phyllis Swanson, Mrs. Lillian Davenport and Mrs. Norma Warner (ABOVE RIGHT) were faculty assistants.

The junior class play, "Hillbilly Weddin," was presented on March 26 and 27, 1976. The plot revolved around Cealie, the oldest of six daughters, and her problems getting married. Paw was to find a husband: Would it be Obeey, Chiz, or sophisticated Ronald? The solution was a double marriage--Bonnie Mae and Ronald, Obeey and Cealie --after she disposed of her rattlesnakes.

Among the many activities enjoyed this year by the F.H.A. was the powder puff football game (ABOVE AND RIGHT). One of our bigger events was hosting the District F.H.A. Convention on October 6. Freshmen initiation proved to be very exciting for everyone. With the F.F.A.'s help, we sponsored a hayride and the annual Sweetheart Dance. The snow did not stop us from caroling to our adopted grandmothers. Our Christmas bake sale provided us with enough money to host a February party for our adopted grandmothers. We also held our annual basketball game to raise money for muscular dystrophy. Some of the F.H.A. members served as waitresses (LEFT) at the F.F.A. banquet.

The F.F.A. started the year of activities by initiating seven new members. For money-making projects we sold 350 crates of fruit in three days, sold insulated vests, and held the slave sale after the F.H.A. benefit basketball game. We sponsored a hayride and annual Sweetheart Dance with the F.H.A. Last summer we had the family picnic and tractor pull contest and in December we held a game feed--potluck supper for the members and their families. We ended the year with the F.F.A. banquet (ABOVE AND RIGHT) with installation of officers and the presentation of awards.

INSTRUMENTAL

Instrumental music is more than just show. It involves a great deal of hard practice as these pictures reveal. The band shared with vocal groups in presenting a Christmas Concert and spring Pops Concert. The finale of the band year was District Music Contest at Wayne State College held April 22-23, 1976. The band received a II rating. Instrumental groups performing at contest were flute quartet-II, clarinet quartet-III, trumpet trio-I, trombone quartet-III, and baritone trio-II.

Band participation involves many students throughout the year. In the fall the band performs at football games (TOP LEFT). During the winter it supports the basketball team as a Pep Band at home games (TOP RIGHT). The final event for concert band during the year is music contest. Seven students (LEFT) took instrumental solos to contest. Their instruments and ratings are as follows: K. Erwin, flute-I, S. Johnson, saxophone-I, C. Koch, Trumpet-II, L. Erwin, piano-I and trumpet-III, B. French, bass clarinet-I, L. Von Minden, piano-I, and J. Kjer, flute-I. Younger band members (BELOW) gained their first experiences in "contest tension" when they were involved in the junior high contest held at Hartington, Nebraska. These students played in the concert band on Tuesday and Thursday and participated in concerts. Marching band marched in three Bicentennial parades during the summer.

MUSIC VOCAL

The vocal music department, consisting of Mixed Chorus, Chamber Choir, Swing Choir, and Girls' and Boys' Glee enjoyed an active year performing at two concerts, Ponca Nursing Home, Homecoming, Veteran's Day, Graduation exercises and District Music Contest where they received many high honors. Vocal solos for contest include (LEFT): J. Creamer-I, C. Ferguson-I, S. McAfee-II, L. Von Minden-I, and S. Erwin-I. The junior high and high school Swing Choirs (BELOW) received I's at their respective contests.

The 1975 Homecoming week, Oct. 6-10, was full of spirit-rousing activities. We had a "blue jeans day", "hat day", "red/white day", "dress-up day", and "blue/gold day" for wearing apparel. Decorating the gym with our theme of "How Sweet It Is to be a Winner" was an all-week project. We had a bonfire-pep rally Thursday evening. Coronation was held Friday afternoon with K. Linafelter as our guest speaker, the swing choir as entertainment, and 1974 royalty, R. Chase and L. Carpenter, crowning our new royalty. The entire secondary student body, led by the band and royal court in convertibles, paraded through Allen. After the parade, a pep rally was held with the sophomores winning the victory stick. The game against Newcastle was played Friday evening with Allen winning 13-7. The activities were climaxed with a dance in the gymnasium with Mr. Koontz as the disc jockey.
