The Annual Staff Records Memories To Look Back Upon.

School is a time of looking forward. Though few students admit it, they look forward to school starting in the fall and once again interacting with their friends. They look forward to Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter vacations, snow days, Homecoming, Sweetheart, and Prom activities, and, most importantly, to graduation. But once a student has graduated they begin looking back to their school days. For this reason, the Annual Staff has chosen the theme "Looking Forward to Looking Back" because it so appropriately fits the attitudes of students.

ANNUAL STAFF - Row 1-T. Olson, S. Noe, M. Strehlow, A. Noe, J. Cutting, A. Noe, E. Mattes, V. Puckett, W. Vavra, R. Plueger, S. Carlson. Row 2-L. Isom, C. Smith, J. Lee, B. Johnson, J. Liebig, B. Stingley.

This year, in addition to planning and implementing the Homecoming activities, the Student Council sponsored a Pre-Arbor Day dance in order to raise money for improvements to the triangular area in front of the school. This landscaping project will be in conjunction with the 1991 Allen centennial. Council members are: S. Jones, M. Isom, M. Mahler, C. Chase, C. Stapleton, C. Sachau, G. Stapleton, B. Sullivan, H. Sachau, M. Petit, A. McGrath, K. Chase, T. Hohenstein, K. Crosgrove, C. Jones, B. Jackson, K. Lund, S. Chase.

Chris remembers when he was the kindergarten crownbearer for Homecoming, lost the pins holding the crown in place, and was terrified of the possible punishment.

Brad remembers fighting with Brian S. and getting his long hair pulled. Brian always had short hair, and Brad could never pull his hair.

Michelle remembers the first and second graders' skating party at Wakefield and getting her finger cut off when the bathroom door closed on it.

Kevin remembers when Chad broke his arm on the monkey bars in fifth grade.

Cindy remembers when Craig would continually switch the room light on and off when Mrs. Wallin wasn't in the kindergarten room. Brandy remembers in sixth grade when the class was studying pronouns, and she was deciding whether to say she or it. You know what she accidentally said!

Larry remembers always watching a movie after recess when he was in kindergarten.

Bobby, that's one outrageous rock you got!

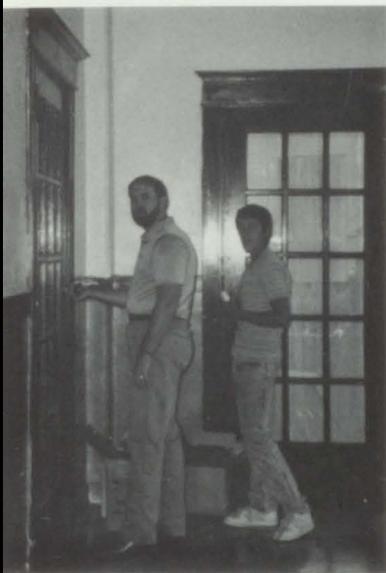

Let's make a deal - Girl #1, Girl #2, or Girl #3.

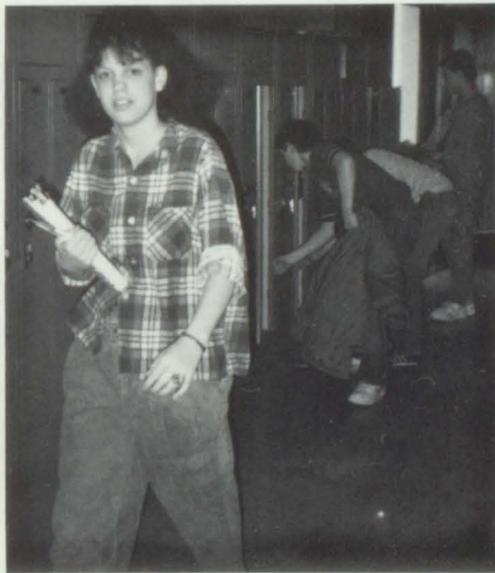

Pat, I think she winked at you.

Can I afford this ring?

I didn't do it. I swear!

All these men, and I still have to carry my own books!

Brad is looking forward to being a barber and styling Brian's long hair.

Brandy is looking forward to being a great orator and majoring in pronouns. Brandy is also looking forward to naming her kids Wally and Beaver.

Denise is looking forward to the time when Cindy can make it through an algebra class without getting confused.

The freshmen are looking forward to the time when Chad can get a test done in one class period.

Bobby is looking forward to owning Waldbaum's and renaming it Bobbaum's.

Jennifer is looking forward to being the next Cindy Lauper.

Michelle is looking forward to being a surgical doctor who specializes in amputations.

Larry is looking forward to being a great movie critic because of his kindergarten training.

Jody looks back to when Brent just threw "a little bit of buck-shot."

Robin looks back to Carla, Heather, and her musical days with their class hit "China."

Brent remembers fourth grade when Paul tried to deny cheating on a test with the answers written all over his arms.

Troy remembers when Paul threw a book out of the history room window, and it almost hit Mr. Uldrich who was walking on the ground.

Shane remembers his first ride in an ambulance after smashing his head through the door window at the '87 Homecoming dance. Everyone remembers "swimming" at the end-of-year seventh grade picnic.

Cheer, Baby, Cheer

The sophomore class is looking forward to seeing Paul on TV, being convicted of treason and other capital crimes, with Mr. Uldrich as the judge.

The sophomores are looking forward to watching Robin, Heather B., and Carla singing on the Johnny Carson show.

The sophomores are looking forward to seeing Barry cruising down the freeway in a '67 Chevelle.

The sophomores will be listening to the news closely to hear when Brent becomes the Secretary of Agriculture.

The sophomores, of course, will definitely be looking forward to graduating in two more years, as the senior class of 1991.

The sophomores are looking forward to seeing Shane, in a few years, quarantined in an ambulance.

The sophomores are looking forward to seeing Heather H. as President of the United States.

The sophomores are looking forward to seeing Heidi training dolphins in Hawaii.

The sophomores are looking forward to seeing Stacy teaching American history in Russia.

The sophomores are looking forward to seeing Renee as the defendant on People's Court, arguing with the judge.

Returning to AHS for the second year and continuing to live with the Verlan Hingst family was MAIKO MIYAKE from Ichikawa Chiba, Japan. In her home country Maiko enjoyed windsurfing, skiing, dancing, and tennis. At Allen she participated in basketball, volleyball, track, choir, and FHA. Future plans include returning to Japan, attending a university, and later going to Spain to study.

Everyone became familiar with the Danish accent of BIRGITTE SOERENSEN, another foreign exchange student at our school this year. Birgitte was from Odense, Denmark, and attended Dalumskolen School. While at Allen she lived with Truman and Darlene Fahrenholz and participated in volleyball. Her other interests included curling, playing piano, listening to music, and reading. Upon graduation she plans to return to Denmark, attend college, and possibly become a physiotherapist.

The senior girls remember Noelle's first basket in eighth grade. She was so excited that she cheered instead of running to the other end of the court.

We remember Enean and Lanny always together in the first grade.

Candace remembers falling off the swing in first grade and landing in a mud puddle.

Jan remember when the electricity went out, and she came to school with straight hair.

Amy remembers when she first got her braces, and everyone thought she had chew.

Maiko remembers her first time in our school which was a volleyball practice. She was so scared, but everyone was so friendly to her she could continue practicing. Now all those strangers are her friends.

Tyler remembers skating on the ice in sixth grade and getting into trouble.

The senior boys remember Bobby E. putting a Hot Rod magazine cover over his Playboy magazine and looking at it in study hall.

The senior class remembers Jan's ringlets, E-Ball, Valerie's broken glasses, the "Clique", and the Hooch Hut.

Pam remembers when she stuttered.

Seniors guide underclassmen on cheerleading squads

Cheerleaders were divided into two squads again this year: all cheering for football home games, boys' squad cheering for away football games, girls' squad cheering for volleyball tournaments, and each squad cheering for the girls' or boys' basketball teams. Boys' squad members (top left) consisted of T. Malcom, J. Kavanaugh, B. Blohm, P. Kennelly, and L. Sullivan. Girls' squad members (left) consisted of E. Mattes, T. Olson, J. Strehlow, and M. Kraemer. Sponsors this year were Deb Snyder and Mary Johnson.

FFA and FHA activities benefit the community and school

The FHA did most of its activities within the school environment. They held monthly meetings with occasional guest speakers, attended district convention at West Point, carried their banner in the Homecoming parade, raised money with a "message" service at each holiday, remembered secret sisters with cards and gifts, held a Christmas party with cookie exchange, and had a spring salad buffet. The FFA sold fruit and cheese to the public again this year. They also helped move the books into the new Springbank Township library, served at the Northeast Nebraska Pork Producers Banquet, and held their annual Awards Banquet. The chapter held monthly meetings, competed in FFA/VoAg contests and attended district, state, and national conventions. Our dairy judging team (see page 60) consisting of B. Greenleaf, A. Jones, and T. Hohenstein placed first in state competition and went to compete against 47 other teams at the Kansas City National Convention where they placed twenty-third. Elizabeth Hansen, our chapter president the last two years, ran for state FFA office in 1988 and plans to try again in 1989.

Twenty-three boys participated in football

Looking back to when our varsity football players weighed a mere 100 pounds as underclassman, football fans at AHS can see many changes in the size and quality of the players. The weight lifting program, changes in the coaching staff, and improved morale helped to improve our win-loss record. Now we are looking forward to having a successful winning season next year. Honors for outstanding play went to K. Chase and S. Dahl-First Team All-Area Offense, K. Crosgrove and R. Dickens-First Team All-Area Defense, K.Chase-Honorable Mention Offensive Back, S. Dahl-Honorable Mention Offensive Lineman, R. Dickens-Honorable Mention Defensive Lineman, K. Crosgrove-Honorable Mention Defensive Back, and K. Hard practice was rewarded with good games

Senior team members-Amy, Pam, Candace, Toni, Missy, and Birgitte- looked back to their freshman year and remembered the 9-11 record. This year the entire team remembered the year as a time of hours of practice and a 17-5 record for varsity team, 5-2 for B team, and 7-0 for C team. Good memories also included winning the Pender Tournament, becoming Lewis and Clark Conference Champions, and making it to the district playoff. Omaha World Herald All-State Honorable Mention went to M. Martinson and C. Jones. All-Conference First Team placings went to M. Martinson (captain) and C. Jones, while Second Team placing went to A. Noe.

The drama class presented two plays this year.

Scenes from "Seven Wives for Dracula," the first production of the drama class, are shown on this page. The entire student body laughed as Dracula and his Countess invaded the "funny farm" and collected six more victims. However, Dr. VanHelsing saved the day with a little help from one of the mental patients, Renfield. The second play (below) presented to the students in grades kindergarten through third was entitled "Witches, Britches, Rings, and Things." This four-act play had Ethel, a retired witch, narrate four different fairy tales-"Billy Goats Gruff," "The Kettle of Brains," "The Clever Daughter," and "The Three Sillies."

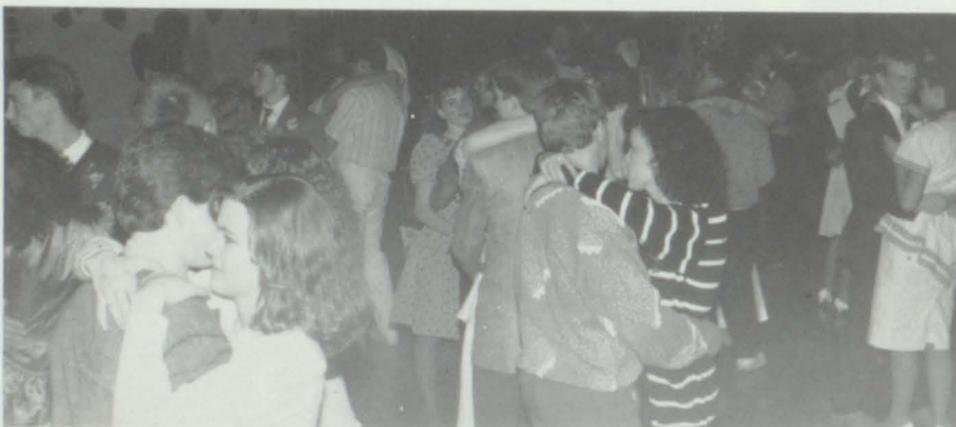

One-Act Play received II's at conference and district speech contest.

"Once upon a Playground" showed that everyone has faults. The "in girls" picked on the girl with the funny nose to hide their own physical defects. The play ended on a happy note when the girl with a funny nose met a boy with a funny nose at a snipe hunt. Cast members are pictured upper right on page 38 and included E. Mattes, B. Stingley, C. Smith, J. Liebig, K. Philbrick, R. Strivens, R. Plueger, B. Greenleaf, and W. Vavra.

Seven students competed in speech competition (page 38). They were B. Greenleaf (Serious Prose-Conference II, District II), R. Plueger (Original Public Address-District II), A. Macklem (Duet Acting-District III), J. Strehlow (Original Public Address-District III), B. Blohm (Duet Acting-District III), M. Kraemer (Humorous Prose-District II), J. Kavanaugh (Informative Public Speaking-Conference I, District II).

Everyone Looks Back To Their High School Sweetheart Dances.

The FFA/FHA held the annual Sweetheart dance on February 18, 1989, with the theme being, "When I'm With You." The gym was decorated in red, black, and silver with music supplied by Real-to-Reel. The 1987-88 royalty, J. Johnson and E. Hansen, crowned the 1988-89 King J. Preston and Queen M. Martinson. Junior attendants were T. Hohenstein and J. Lee; sophomore attendants were B. Anderson and R. Schroeder; freshman attendants were K. Crosgrove and C. Chase (upper left). The Master and Mistress of ceremonies were K. Chase and C. Smith.

Eight new initiates were inducted into National Honor Society.

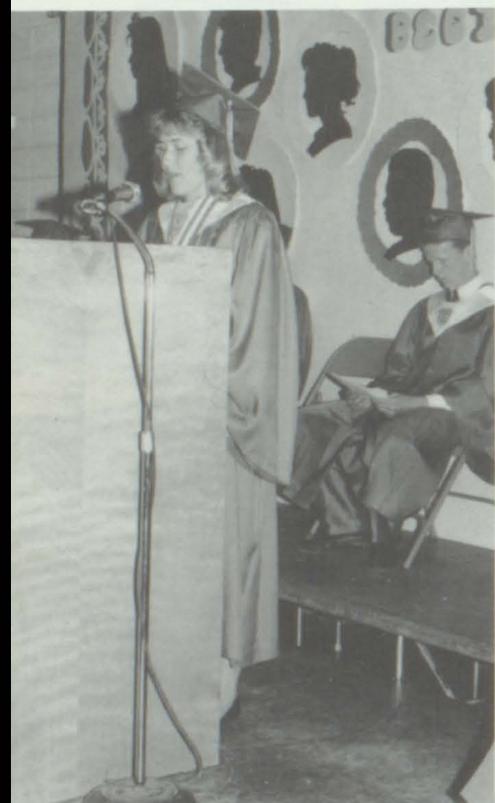

An impressive ceremony was held on May 16, 1989, when B. Soerensen, T. Hohenstein, C. Smith, K. Philbrick, J. Liebig, C. Stapleton, R. Plueger, and S. Carlson (top right) became NHS members. Present members related to the initiates the traits of NHS members. Entertainment was a vocal duet by Sandy and Cindy Chase. Officers for the 1989-90 year are S. Carlson-Treas., C. Stapleton-Sec., J. Lee-V.P., K. Boswell-Pres. (below).

Allen Achievers were publicly recognized.

On May 18, 1989, students were recognized for achievements in perfect attendance, honor roll, spelling, Nebraska History Day, speech, annual, typing, computer, FFA, music, cheerleading, sports, academics, and Legion and Auxilliary at the Awards Night Ceremony. Following the ceremony was the annual ice cream sundae sale by the Annual Staff.

More than just good seed

Everyone who uses Pioneer® brand products knows how well they yield. But, there's more to Pioneer than just consistently good yields. Things like genetic depth. Because Pioneer® brand hybrid and variety lines are so extensive, you can spread your risk without having to go anywhere else. There's the product line itself — it covers everything from seed corn, soybeans, alfalfa, sorghum and wheat to silage inoculant. And if you ever have questions, Pioneer has trained field agronomists available when you need them.

Finally, there's your Pioneer salesman. He's someone you know, like and trust. And because he lives right down the road from you, everything Pioneer offers is right down the road, too.
