The Better We Look . . .

Using a computer program developed by the publishers, yearbook staff members learned new techniques of typing copy, counting spaces, and placing copy. Coupled with the theme this year of "The Closer You Look, the Better We Look", staff members hoped to produce a better-looking book with fewer mistakes. However, the reader, looking closely, may find mistakes. Improvement comes with practice. Shown throughout the book are pictures taken at close view of items throughout the school. See how many you can recognize.

The 90's brings computerized production for the yearbook staff.

Everyone enjoyed listening closely to the high school (above) and junior high (left) choirs at their performances for pops concert, Christmas concert, and awards night ceremony. The junior high choir received a II and the jazz choir received a I at their contest held at Allen. At district music contest held at Wakefield, the high school choir received a II and the girls glee received a II. Shown below are vocal soloists Holly Blair and Megan Kumm who received a I and II respectively at contest.

The closer you listened to the band, the better it sounded.

The audience enjoyed the concert band perform at the Christmas concert, the pops concert, the awards night ceremony, and graduation. Nine students were chosen for Conference Honor Band. At contest, the band received straight I's from the judges. The next day, April 25, the band was off to Des Moines, Iowa, to compete at the Adventureland Drake Relays Festival of Bands. The band earned a II+ rating and "Best of Class" trophy for the unprecedented third straight year. The band was honored at the awards night with a standing ovation; Mr. Lacy was given a "Masters" suit by the Music Boosters in appreciation for his work with the music students at Allen Public School. Marching band performed at Emerson's, Homer's and Allen's homecoming parades and at home football games. Pep band played at home games and sub-district tournament.

Do you remember . . .

when Brandy, Amiee, and Cindy got lost in Ponca State Park?
when Jennifer had burgundy brown hair?
when Wayne wrecked his grandma's van, and we thought he was hospitalized?
when Paul piled eighteen people in his mom's station wagon?
when Larry had a huge hickie that he tried to rub off with a quarter?
when Craig annoyed everyone in study hall or band?

Have you ever seen . . .

Michelle in the same mood twice?
Denise when she wasn't drinking Coke?
Mike not cruising around town?
Brent, Brian S., Bradley, and Jason behaving in Mrs. Boswell's English class?
Shane and Kevin apart?
Sean serious about school?

Gabriela Rins,

our foreign exchange student from San Juan, Argentina, lived with Shirley and Bobbie Stingley while attending Allen Public School. She participated in track in addition to taking senior level courses.

"Everything I do, I do it for you" was the 1991-92 Homecoming theme.

Homecoming week was filled with various activities that led up to the coronation on Friday, October 11. Crowned royalty were King Chris Sachau and Queen Cindy Chase. First attendants were Denise Boyle and Kevin Crosgrove; second attendants were Amiee Macklem and Craig Boyle. Mistress and Master of Ceremonies were Sean Moran and Michelle Kraemer. Flowergirls and crownbearers were Rowena Cutting and Scott Blohm from the kindergarten class and Melissa Yordy and Daniel Sullivan from the first grade. Junior escorts were Stacey Jones, Justin Kelly, Brenda Sullivan, Bren Mattes, Heather Sachau, and Lane Anderson. Following the coronation, a parade was held through town ending at the park where a pep rally was held. The Homecoming game was against Walthill. The week's activities ended with a dance in the gym with music provided by Complete Music.

The 1991 volleyball team, under first-year coach Buffy Romshek, earned a 17-5 record. They placed first in the Newcastle Tournament and third in the Pender Tournament. The team was Lewis division champions because of winning the most conference games in this division.

The 1991 football team had a hard-hitting defense and quick offense. Two games this year were unusual. There were four overtimes before they finally won over Wausa. The last game of the year had to be re-scheduled and played in the afternoon following an eleven-inch snowfall on the regularly-scheduled game date.

I'm innocent, Dean.

Take a close look at the FHA/HERO activities.

This year, the FHA/HERO chapter sold raffle tickets for a stuffed volleyball and football, sponsored a hayrack ride in the fall, helped the FFA put on the Sweetheart Dance in February, participated in the Adopt-A-Highway program, held a salad luncheon, and distributed holiday messages. Two members attended state convention, and five members competed in the SEARCH contest in Wayne. Those receiving gold medals in Peer Education were Shawna Hohenstein, Dawn Diediker, and Heather Sachau. Christy Philbrick and Ann Maxey received silver medals in the All-Star chapter category.

FFA accomplishments were viewed closely at the annual FFA banquet.

Pat Brentlinger and Kevin Crosgrove were recognized as recipients of the State FFA degree at the well-attended banquet held May 12. Other awards presented were to Kevin Crosgrove for Outstanding Senior Pork Producer, to Jay Jackson for Star Chapter Farmer, and to Megan Kumm for Star Greenhand. Other activities throughout the year included meetings, demonstrations, and contests. Fourteen members attended state convention. The freshmen students were involved in planting the trees for the Allen Historical Tree Grove. School activities included participating in the homecoming parade and co-sponsoring the Sweetheart Dance.

Students show a closeup view of speaking and acting abilities.

Speech contest competitors were Stephanie Chase, Ann Maxey, Dawn Diediker, Curtis Oswald, and Casey Schroeder. At conference and district contests, Dawn, Stephanie, and Ann did the drama reading, "The Third Age," and received excellents. Dawn in poetry and Ann in humorous both received excellents. At district contest, Curtis and Casey received a good rating in duet acting. The speech coach was Connie Roberts.

The above students were the one-act play cast members who presented "The Ransom of Emily Jane," a parody of the familiar story, "The Ransom of Red Chief." The students enjoyed spilling the beans during practices as well as performing at the National Honor Society dinner theater (below). At competition they earned excellents at conference and district contests.

National Honor Society takes a closer look at good academics.

PIONEER HI-BRED INTERNATIONAL, INC.

More than just good seed

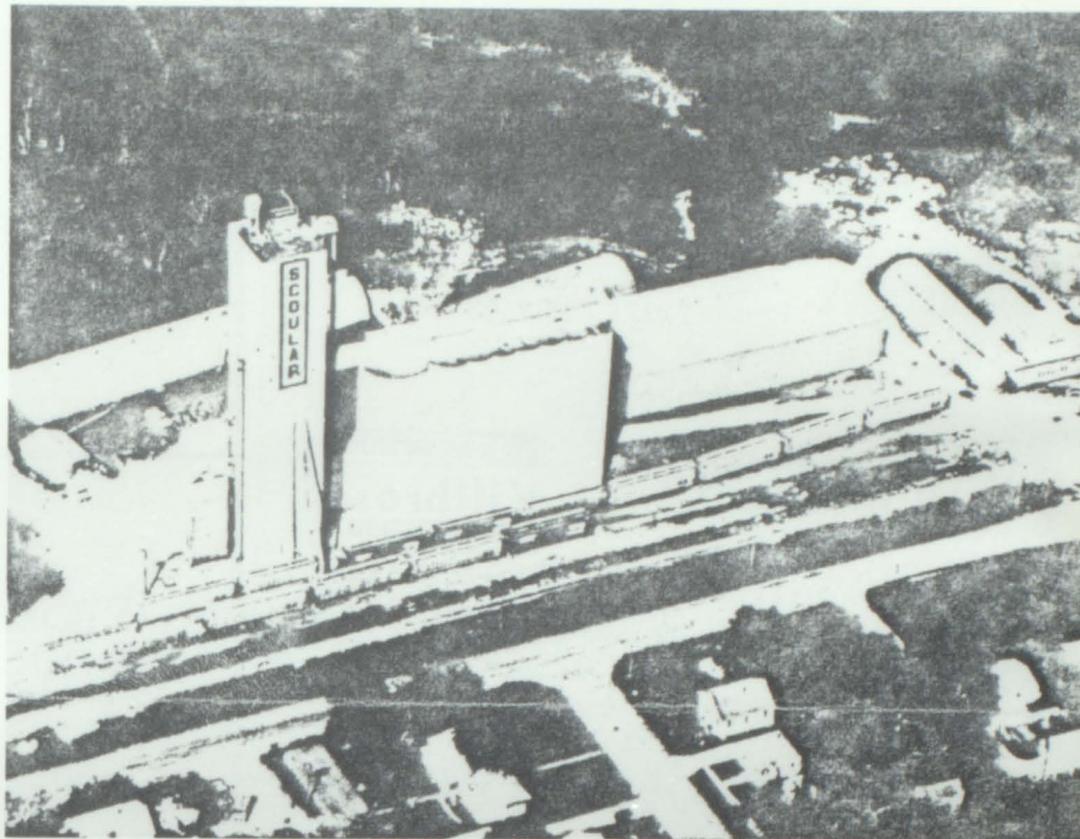

Everyone who uses Pioneer® brand products knows how well they yield. But, there's more to Pioneer than just consistently good yields. Things like genetic depth. Because Pioneer® brand hybrid and variety lines are so extensive, you can spread your risk without having to go anywhere else. There's the product line itself — it covers everything from seed corn, soybeans, alfalfa, sorghum and wheat to silage inoculant. And if you ever have questions, Pioneer has trained field agronomists available when you need them.

Finally, there's your Pioneer salesman. He's someone you know, like and trust. And because he lives right down the road from you, everything Pioneer offers is right down the road, too.
