School is a challenging endeavor which requires tenacity to accomplish goals. For this reason, the Annual Staff chose the phrase, "Stick With It," as the theme of the 1993-94 yearbook. As shown on this page, Annual Staff members "stick with it" in typing copy, cutting and pasting pictures, proofreading, and selling ads to produce a yearbook. Everyone connected with a school must "stick with it" to have a successful school year. Students, parents, friends, and staff members must "stick with it" with homework and satisfactory grades, extracurricular practices and competitions, attendance, and acquiring social skills. Seniors who have "stuck with it" at Allen their K-12 school career are Penny, Steph C., Dawn, Michelle, Jay, Marcy, Megan, Curtis, Casey, Kelli, Bobbi S., and Steve.

The football team stuck with it for a 50-0 thrashing of the Walthill Blujays.

Homecoming '93 combined the homecoming activities with SOS's Red Ribbon Week. Dress up days included hero, blue/gold, hippie, cowboy/Indian, and dress-up. SOS activities included cutting of the red ribbon, putting red ribbons on locker doors, and performances by the SOS clowns. Friday's coronation and pep rally in the gym carried out the theme of "What Might Have Been." The game ended early with a decisive victory, and the dance followed.

FFA, above, began the year with the officers attending a summer meeting to discuss goals for the chapter. Members attended Husker Harvest Days held in Grand Island, competed in dairy judging, speaking, demonstrating, welding, and tractor operating contests, and had exhibits at the local and state fairs. FFA members sold fruit, organized a Christmas lighting contest, held monthly meetings with guest speakers presenting information about their occupations, and co-sponsored the Sweetheart Dance.

This year FHA/HERO, below, was active in community and school functions. Members started the year with the annual Tom Wat sales and highway clean-up projects. A bake sale was held at the Christmas concert to collect money for the food baskets which were given to area families. In January Wendi Karmann attended Star-Search at Wayne State College, receiving a silver medal in Illustrated Talk. The chapter co-sponsored the Sweetheart Dance.

Underclassman, (below) don't believe a thing those seniors tell you.

The Junior-Senior Prom theme was "Hold on to the Night."

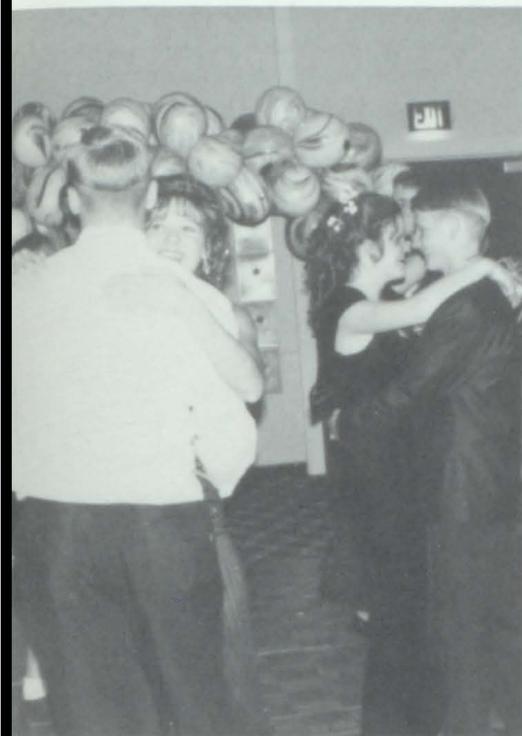

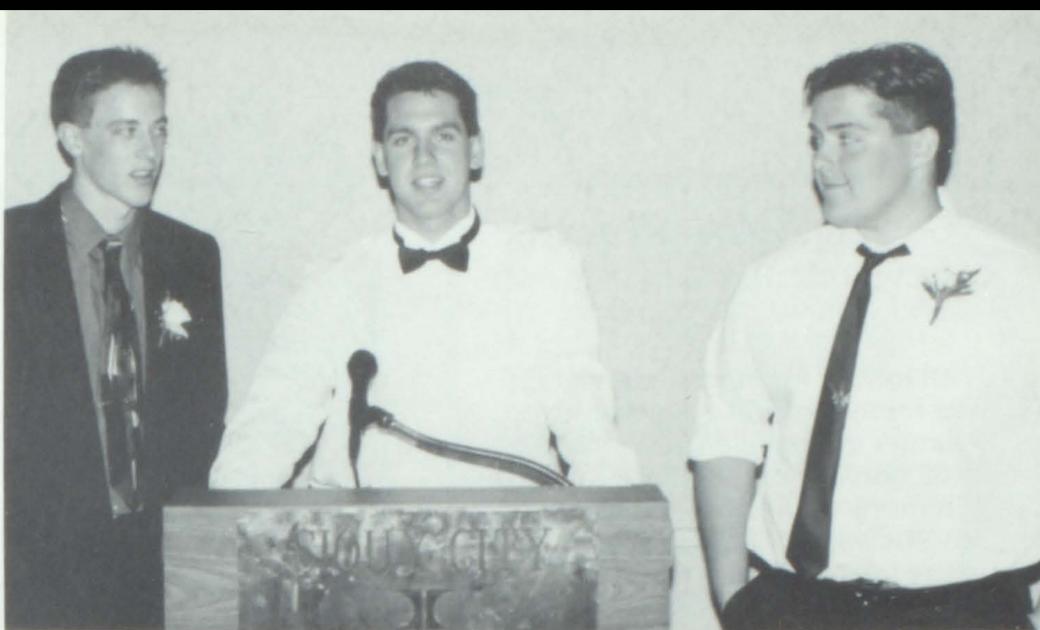

Junior-Senior Prom did not stick to the usual tradition of decorating and holding the gala event in the school gymnasium. Instead, the juniors chose to hold the banquet and dance at the Hilton Inn Ballroom in Sioux City, Iowa, on April 16, 1994. The grand march was held at the school; then students, dates, and chaperones went on a charter bus to the city. Guests were welcomed by Mrs. Levine and Stephenie Gregerson. The prayer was given by Craig Philbrick. The meal followed. The after-dinner entertainment included a dance routine by the sophomore waiters and waitresses, Jason Moran reminisced about the juniors, Jay Jackson told his special memories of the seniors, Aaron Thompson read a farewell poem to the seniors, and Holly Blair closed the program with "Ode to the Seniors." The dance was held at the Hilton with music supplied by KG 95. Students enjoyed the after-prom party held at the Wakefield Fun Center where they bowled, skated, gambled, and had prize giveaways.

More than just good seed

Everyone who uses Pioneer® brand products knows how well they yield. But, there's more to Pioneer than just consistently good yields. Things like genetic depth. Because Pioneer® brand hybrid and variety lines are so extensive, you can spread your risk without having to go anywhere else. There's the product line itself — it covers everything from seed corn, soybeans, alfalfa, sorghum and wheat to silage inoculant. And if you ever have questions, Pioneer has trained field agronomists available when you need them.

Finally, there's your Pioneer salesman. He's someone you know, like and trust. And because he lives right down the road from you, everything Pioneer offers is right down the road, too.
